

OLLIE'S CROSSWORDS #1

ACROSS

3. This summer visitor catches dragonflies on the wing
4. The name given to the nest of an eagle or falcon
8. Any animal or bird that naturally preys on others.
10. All raptors eat other animals, birds or invertebrates. That makes them one of these.
11. This species of owl is white and has lots of feathers to protect it from arctic temperatures
12. Hobbies, Kestrels, Merlins and Peregrines are all UK birds of prey in this family.
14. A Goshawk will always build its nest in one of these.
16. The number of stomachs a bird has.
17. Birds of prey that are active in the daytime are known as this.

DOWN

1. Britain's smallest bird of prey
2. The name given to the annual journey some birds of prey undertake in order to find food and breeding locations.
3. The characteristic shape of a bird of prey's beak.
5. Birds of prey that are active at night are known as this.
6. Not all raptors hunt their own food. Some eat animal carcasses also known as this.
7. This falcon is the fastest creature in the world!
9. Another name for the claws of a bird of prey
11. These reptiles form the basis of the diet of the Crested Serpent Eagle
13. This another name for a group of eggs.
14. The most common owl species in the UK
15. A small mammal that Short-eared Owls love to eat

